

MAIN COMPANY TARGETS:

plant efficiency improvement improving product quality improving material handling to get higher level of safety and efficiency reducing pollution impact on the environment and workplaces suppliers awareness about environmental issues improvement of environmental and quality controls separate waste collection efficiency highest environmental and safety requirements to prevent pollution and improving work environments continuous staff training shows how much important is the single action to achieve environmental and quality targets